Topic: Motivational seminar regarding Goal setting

Introduction to topic & Session

This special session is arranged for the students of Integrated MBA to motivate them and the main reason is to uncover the skills which are already imbibed as a hidden talent among the students.

Learning outcomes from students perspective

It was a brilliant experience for the students. Even some of them were literally cried due to self-realization and it was not a motivation of 2 to 3 days but the students were given motivation for their life time to achieve their desired goals and reach to their peak stage.
