

Human Resource Workshop

Objective:

The aim of this workshop is to add fathomless knowledge about the essential aspects of Human Resource Management.

Date: 27th March

Time: 1 days

Venue: LJIMC Lab

Resource person : Miti Randheri

Profile: Human Resource trainer

Number of students participated- 45

Topics covered- Basis of Performance Management

Human Resource is a conventional management field and highly aspired by management students. This workshop spread brilliance among the students about the Performance Management system, as the essential aspect of the HR. the students we made to learn how to do appraisal ,what should be the points to be taken into consideration before doing appraisal.

Learning-

- This workshop provided clear glance of performance management system among the students.
- Miti Randheri acquainted students with practical knowledge of the PMS model and its importance n the HR department.
- Sufficient students' engagement was achieved during this workshop and students loved it.
- How to do appraisal, steps to be followed for appraisal.